Manila, May 26.—[Special]—Aguinaldo's commissioners, who returned with the report of their negotiations with the American commissioners at Manila, learned on reaching headquarters that Gen. Luna had arrested and imprisoned the previous envoys.

They decided to take no chances and returned to Calumpit, from which point they proceeded up the river on a United States gunboat.

A battalion of the First California left for Negros last night to assist in quelling an uprising in the southern part of the island and on the coast of Cebu.

Larger Army is Needed
Manila, May 26.—[Special]—Army officers say that a much larger army is needed here.

Feeling Among High Officials
Washington, May 26.—[Special]—There is considerable feeling among high officials of the war department against the action of the United States Philippine commission.

GO BACK TO AGUINALDO.

Peace Envoys Leave Manila to Report to Their Chief.

Manila, May 26.—The Filipino commissioners left here by special train today. They will be escorted to their lines under a flag of truce.

It is expected they will return soon. President Gonzaga of the commission, previous to his departure, said: "We greatly appreciate the courtesy shown us. We have spent some time with your commissioners, incidentally considering the American constitution. Its principles impress us profoundly. The plan of government offered the Philippines seems, in theory, a good colonial system. But why should a nation with your constitution seek to make a colony of a distant people which has been so long fighting against Spain to secure the same rights your constitution gives? You fought the same battle in America when you fought against England."

Washington, May 26.—Gen. Otis has forwarded the following dispatch to the war department:

Yesterday the enemy appeared in the vicinity of San Fernando and was attacked by Kansas and Montana regiments, which suffered slight loss. Enemy driven through rice fields, leaving fifty dead, thirty-eight wounded and twenty-eight prisoners. Fifty rifles and other property captured. Insurgents retreat through swamp land saved them from destruction. Lawton returning, leaving with MacArthur on the front regular troops to replace volunteers. OTIS."

Score of Buildings Burned and 1,000 Persons Homeless.

The course of the fire was at first away from the water, and in half an hour from the first alarm ten buildings in Main and Bridge streets were in flames.

Tenants of houses either on fire or in immediate danger moved out their furniture and piled it in places of supposed safety, only to see it burned on the street or to be compelled to move it again.

The area burned over comprises fifteen blocks, or portions of blocks, and the buildings destroyed number 150. The district ravaged by the fire was composed largely of tenement houses, and probably 1,000 persons are homeless, a majority of them laboring people.

Two deaths are to be set down to the fire. A Miss Cunard, an aged lady residing in Holly street, was burned in her house, and Mrs. Arnold Mowery, who resided a short distance from the scene, died from shock.

When the men on trial were captured at Wausau the sheriff removed from their clothes a pint bottle half filled with liquid and several small vials. The bottles were taken to Milwaukee and identified by him as nitro-glycerine. The bottles were produced in court and the chemist said there was still enough liquid in the bottles to destroy the court house if it should go off. The defendant's attorney objected to a great portion of Fisher's testimony as incompetent.

HIRED MAN SUES FOR FIVE HUNDRED

CLAIMS VICIOUS BULL GORED HIM BADLY.

Animal Belonged to the Late Judge M. M. Phelps—Followed Herman Reincke and Nearly Took His Life—Case Now in the Rock County Court.

Before Judge Lyon's in the Rock county court is now being tried a most novel case in the entitled action of Herman Reincke vs. the M. M. Phelps estate.

The claimant is suing for $500 personal damages alleged to have been wrought by a vicious Durham bull, the property of the Phelps estate.

Judge J. W. Sale having had legal business with the Phelps estate preferred not to try the case and Judge Lyons of Walworth county, was summoned.

Herman Reincke, the claimant in the action, worked on the M. E. Hilton farm in the town of Rock at the time of the accident.

On the afternoon of May 7, 1898, Reincke claims that while leading a cow home from the Phelps farm the animal in question broke out of the pasture and followed him home and into Hilton's farm yard.

Reincke attempted to drive the animal out, when suddenly it turned on him, throwing him down and attempted to gore him to death.

In the melee that followed, Reincke was badly bruised about the body and was, it is alleged, confined to his bed several weeks.

A. L. Haynor, a neighboring farmer, put in an appearance, and with a garden rake in hand, drove the bull away.

Reincke now sues for $500 damages. Several witnesses were examined during the day.

Attorney J. J. Cunningham appeared in behalf of Reincke, the Phelps estate being represented by Attorney E. F. Dunwiddie.

MAY RECALL ADMIRAL KAUTZ

On Account of Indiscreet Utterances.

WRITES LETTER TO AN OHIO RELATIVE.

Contents Made Known to the Press By the Recipient—Commission in Session and Troubles Are in Course of Settlement—Natives Remain Quiet—Both Claimants to the Throne Seem Satisfied to Await Results—Half of the Male Adults Are Awaiting Results in Order to Support Malietoa.

Washington, May 26.—[Special]—It is reported that Admiral Kautz will be recalled from Samoa on account of indiscreet utterances in a letter to an Ohio relative, which was given to the press by the recipient.

Apia, Samoa, May 17 (via Auckland, N. Z., May 26).—The Samoan commission, consisting of Bartlett Tripp, former United States minister to Austria-Hungary; Baron Speck von Sternberg, representing Germany, and C. H. Eliot, C. E., of the British embassy at Washington, representing Great Britain, arrived here May 13.

Its first sitting took place May 16. Nothing was disclosed regarding the deliberations, but it is reported that they will uphold the action of Admiral Kautz, the American naval commander.

Mataafa sent the commissioners a letter of welcome and expressed hope that they would satisfactorily end the troubles in Samoa.

Only one or two cases are known of the wounding of natives by the shell fire of the warships, and as they have not realized the strength of the Europeans, they may go to greater extremes if war arises again.

Half the male adults of Samoa are awaiting action on the part of the commission in order to support Malietoa. The Germans are preparing compensation claims.

It is understood one German firm claims $60,000, and that other German subjects claim $20,000. The British consul, E. B. S. Maxse, invited them to put in their claims and it is understood the commission will adjudicate them.

Berlin, May 26.—A dispatch received here from Apia, Samoa, says the armistice was not disturbed on the arrival there of the Samoan commission, and that letters were being exchanged with the view of disbanding the rival forces.

PAYMENT OF LOST BONDS

Two Five Hundred Ones Given by the City of Janesville.

Since November 1, 1894, two bonds of $500 each of the $40,000 issue given by the city of Janesville to secure the Evansville cut off through this city, on the Northwestern railroad, have been missing and City Treasurer Fathens has never been able to locate them.

Today the mystery was cleared by the appearance of the bonds from Chicago through the Merchants and Mechanics' bank.

The bonds were issued August 11, 1886, when Hon. John Wiggins was mayor and Charles E. Church was city clerk.

By the payment of these two lost bonds it clears the city of all debt connected with the Evansville cut-off railroad purchase.

Since November 1, 1894, these bonds have not been drawing interest, having probably been stored away by some forgetful person.

INSPECT SANITARY NEEDS AT CLINTON

VILLAGE BOARD APPOINTS
HEALTH OFFICERS.

Committee Will Make a Thorough Investigation of All Streets and Alleys—Repairs Made on Electric Light Plant—Memorial Services to be Held at Baptist Church.

Clinton, May 26—The health of the village will be looked after by a committee of health officers appointed at the last meeting of the village board and which consists of Dr. George C. Covert, George A. Snyder and Winton L. Springer. The committee has announced that they will make an inspection of all streets and alleys some day this week and hereby warn the people that all nuisances must be removed. It is to be hoped that a more strict observance of the health ordinances will be enforced this season than has been in the past. The electric light plant now have their duplicate machinery ready and in working order, having erected a second smokestack and made repairs on another boiler which has been brought into use. Farmers in this section are jubilant over the prospects of there being no chinch bugs or potato bugs this season. So far not a bug of either description has been noticed anywhere about here. The hard winter is said to have completely exterminated them. The members of the Alexis Tallman Post G. A. R. will attend in a body the Memorial services to be held at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. The sermon will be given by Pastor Parsons, and an appropriate song service will be rendered by the choir. A rare entertainment is in store for our people next month. The Northwestern University quartette will be here June 28, and give one of their fine programs for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. No one should miss it. We noticed something unusual for this place last Wednesday, being no less than a British flag hung out in honor of the queen's birthday. The good queen of England was eighty years old on that day. Clinton will be represented at the Beloit college exercises this year by Helen Edwards, who is one among the ten of the graduating class who "came on." She takes rank by reason of high standing in class work. Several Beloit professors were up one day this week on business connected with our high school. Prof. Loveland says the school is sure to be placed on the accredited list. About twenty Clinton people attended the funeral of Mrs. D. L. Cheever, held in Delavan Monday. It is reported that E. B. Budlong has a position on the Milwaukee board of trade. George Kennerly's eyes failed, and he was obliged to give up his position at Beloit. Miss Anna Smith spent a few days in Delavan recently. Frank West, son of Dr. West, who is in Milwaukee, had the misfortune of breaking his leg, and is now in a Milwaukee hospital. P. A. Robinson is home from his business trip to Antigo. R. W. Cheever and wife left Thursday for a trip to the Black Hills. We regret missing this excursion, but in view of other contemplated trips this summer, decided to give it up. They will be absent about a week, and see much that is new and interesting.

KING'S PHARMACY,
Cor. Jackson and Milwaukee Sts.

The Royal Neighbors of Camp 192 have been invited to be present, also camp 1875 M. W. A. All neighbors of Shopiere camp are requested to be at the hall at 10 o'clock a. m. on that day. Talk of the Beloit boom, it does not come up to Tiffany. During the past two months they have started a store; got the creamery running again in good shape; O. P. Smith is building a new coal house; and Jerome Shimeall has put in a stock of very nice lumber of all kinds, and cedar posts, at reasonable prices; many loads of stock are shipped weekly, besides all the carloads of grain. The war social at the Congregational church was well patronized, and the old soldiers of the war of '61-'65 responded to Chairman B. H. Smith, when they were called upon to tell the hardships they went through while in service, as did also the soldiers of the late war. The readings by Miss Marie Stark and others were very good, and the remarks by the pastors of the two churches were well put in, but the best of all was the supper. We wish Pastor Jorden of the Congregational church, and wife, much joy and happiness. They were married Tuesday at the home of the bride's father, Philo Porter. Shopiere Camp was visited by about a half dozen of Woodmen from Clinton Camp. Come again. Mrs. Excell left this place for her home in Chicago, Monday, after spending about two weeks in this place. Humphrey Clark is building a new barn. Those who have lots in the Shopiere cemetery should see that they are cleaned up before Decoration day. There are a good many acres of corn ground to plant yet, and the ground is getting hard. A number of farmers who planted before the last heavy rains are planting over. The seed refused to grow.

NARROW ESCAPE OF SHARON DR.

Lamp Exploded While Family Was Absent—Interesting Items.

Sharon, May 26—One evening last week the household of Dr. Chas. Treat had a narrow escape from being burned out. Everyone had left the house for the evening, leaving a lamp burning. When they returned they were astonished to find that during their absence the lamp had exploded, burning the table spread and the table, also two breadths of the carpet and into the straw beneath. Fortunately, owing to some unknown cause, the fire went out without doing more serious damage, which seems quite remarkable. The annual meeting of the Old Settlers of Walworth county will be held at the fair grounds, Elkhorn, Wednesday, June 14th. All are expected to bring their dinner, but tea and coffee will be furnished free by the committee. An address by some noted state speaker, speeches by prominent citizens of the county, interspersed with instrumental and vocal music, will comprise the program which will be given later. Peter Lundbury's little son was taken to Janesville last week, and had a surgical operation performed, comprising the removal of a dead bone from each of his legs, between the knee and hip joint. The boy, who is under the care of Dr. Dewire, has been doing very nicely. To add to the boy's great affliction, he came down with the measles a few days ago. The annual Memorial Sunday service will be held next Sunday morning, May 28, at the Congregational church. All the other churches will be closed, and the congregations will unite in this memorial service. Services will begin at the usual hour, and the sermon will be delivered by Rev. Howell Davies. The annual memorial service of the Modern Woodmen, held last Sunday afternoon at the M. E. church, was very interesting. Dr. Halsey's sermon was both impressive and instructive. The meeting was well attended and about sixty members of the order were present. The village jail building was moved from the old site yesterday, on the lot in the rear of the village hall and engine house, where it will do duty in housing "weary Willies," sober up "drunks," and detain hardened criminals. The Seventeenth Annual Commencement exercises of the Sharon High school will take place in Morris opera hall Monday evening, May 29. The list of graduates includes Misses Zoe Wolcott, Hettie Webber and Hilda Ashburn. Rev. Mr. Moore of Clinton, drove over last Sunday morning to occupy the pulpit of the Congregational church, returning in the evening. His daughter came with him, and during their stay they were the guests of relatives. Mrs. Emily Davis and family. Masons and carpenters have rushed the work along on the office building which J. B. Wise is having put up for Dr. A. L. Schmit, who has leased the building for five years, and expects to occupy it in a short time. Rev. P. W. Peterson, the former pastor of the M. E. church in this village, made a brief but welcome call here Saturday afternoon. The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. A. Griffin next Saturday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. As the annual election of officers will take place, every member is earnestly requested to be present.

West Porter.

West Porter, May 26—Mrs. James Gleave, of Gordonville, Va., is here visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Gleave is expected home soon. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lowery, of Evansville, were guests at Henry Sperry's last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blackman were visitors here last Sunday. Many are planning to attend the Woodmen picnic at Beloit. Several from Porter attended the baseball game at Evansville last Saturday. The roads are very good at present and the past few days the wheelmen have been taking advantage of them. Many are still planting corn, although some have finished. Good seed corn does not seem to be very plentiful this year, but a great many have been looking for it. Good hay brings $10 per ton now.

HAPPENINGS AT MILTON JUNCTION

Visit From W. C. Coon, the Hero of an Incident at Geneva Lake

Milton Junction, May 26—W. C. Coon, of Walworth, is visiting relatives in this place this week. Mr. Coon will be remembered as the hero of an incident at Geneva Lake in July, 1898, in which Howard Sweet was rescued from drowning. Mr. Sweet had gone down in the lake for the last time when Mr. Coon, who was painting near by, ran to the spot, and, though having but one arm, dove to the bottom of the lake and brought Mr. Sweet to the surface. Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Wilson, of Janesville, were calling on friends here Tuesday. Our supervisors have obtained a gift, from the St. Paul company, seventy-five carloads of dirt with which they are filling the grade in front of the Commercial House. Dennis Hayes is taking down the old Bliss building on Merchants' Row, where he will erect a new and larger structure for his business.

O. D. ROWE.

AN ACTER'S RUSE.

What is my particular forte? Low comedy, sir, though if any one had told me that I'd make a hit in that line when I first went upon the stage I'd have felt much insulted.

It doesn't make much difference now what my aspirations were years ago; still, the shades of Hamlet haunted my dreams then, and I was possessed to shine as Romeo. Humph! The manager cast me for a second gravedigger in the first and Gregory in the second. How well I carried the parts out I can't tell; I know I was never invited to do the melancholy Dane; neither was I ever asked to clasp a fair Juliet in the dim-lighted chamber of the Capulets.

I became reconciled to disappointment after awhile, and, after struggling through the lesser characters, I finally was given the position of leading low comedian in the stock company. Perhaps you'd take me for anything but a low comedian. How fairly well I do the business the bills tell that.

In the year of 1860 I was playing in a stock company in New Orleans, and the city was wild with rumors of the dawn of conflict. As the company was comprised of a number of northern people, many vacancies were created by the deserters who hastened homeward. The first to leave was our leading man, and the manager was anxious to secure a competent successor, who soon presented himself in the shape of a fine Texan, of much reputation among the ranks of amateurs. He was a tall, well-built chap of 21 or 22, possessing one of those peculiar voices, such as Hal Montague's—not ranty, strong, but plain, distinct and pleasant; in all, well qualified for the rendering of juvenile leading parts.

I took to the youngster from the start, for I plainly saw that he was one of those talented chaps who, if they fall into judicious hands, can be made much of—as well as spoiled, if they come in contact with old stagers.

For some time back I had noticed that the heavy man had been smitten with the charms of our leading lady. I also saw that she did not favor him in the slightest. When her part made it necessary for her to come in contact with him I saw a shrinking as of more than feigned disgust, and off the stage she treated him pretty much the same as on—with scorn and loathing.

Well, a short time after the new leading man came there sprang up between him and the heavy man an enmity. I was standing in the wings one night waiting for my cue while we were playing one of those good, old-fashioned melodramas; lover had a secret foe who is endeavoring to win the good graces, fortune and hand of the fair one, and all that sort, by underhanded ways. Discovery of the false friend and secret foe follows and the usual duel takes place. Of course the traitorous foe falls, and the curtain drops while the victor clasps the fair one to his breast.

I was waiting for my cue, I said. The handsome young leading man was bending over the leading lady, his hand searching for hers, her face against his. I was watching all this and I saw it was more than stage love. It was the genuine, pure article. "It was my business to rush in just then and thus cause a great deal of commotion. I heard a muttered 'Curse him!'" I turned quickly; it came from the lips of the heavy man, who was standing at my elbow. Such a look of fiendishness upon a human face I never before saw, and as his was ugly by nature without the added features of the makeup, he looked indeed like a devil.

The play passed off smoothly, as usual; the hero and traitor met, the duel took place and the regular denouement followed amid the applause of an appreciative and satisfied audience.

I kept my eyes open after that, for I knew there was something in the CRACK OF PISTOLS FOLLOWED. Wind destined, if possible, to work wrong against the young leading man, who by this time had become a prime favorite among the members of the stock company—the heavy man excepted.

About a week after I had witnessed the villain's rage, happening to pass by his dressing room door, I heard a muffled, clinking sound, as of some metallic substance coming in contact with the lock. I drew nearer, placed my eye to the keyhole and peeped through. The man was seated within range of my vision, upon a trunk, a pistol between his knees, and he was ramming a bullet into the barrel.

It was all as plain as day. The fiend was preparing to murder the handsome young leading man. He would meet his would-be victim in the duel scene, kill him and escape the penalty of the law by advancing the plea that he never dreamed that the pistol was loaded. I was thunder-struck. I knew the fellow was a morose person, a man of strong dislikes and few likes, but I did not think him capable of such a dastardly deed as he contemplated. Thank heaven! I had witnessed the little scene behind closed doors.

Hearing his call from the call-boy, I withdrew behind some packing trunks and soon heard him treading the boards above. I knew that he would remain on some time, so I went into his dressing room and quickly withdrew the bullet from the pistol. Then I went to my post above and found the play progressing smoothly as usual.

I never saw the leading man do as well; as for the leading lady, she was accepting his love with word, glance and sweet gestures which told plainly that she was in earnest. He was making real love to her; yes, sir, such love as you do sometimes see on the boards. We old stagers can tell the difference between downright love and the make-believe article every time.

When the rivals met in the duel scene, I can assure you I was more than an anxious spectator. He, the hero, met the muzzle of the rival with the same cool demeanor as hitherto. I wondered would he appear as cool, as brave, had he known of the scene behind the doors.

The face of the villain was a perfect picture of hellish ferocity, and I never before knew how much of a man's evil nature could be depicted upon his features. The word was given to fire. The sharp crack of the pistols followed and the smoke passed up into the flies.

Ah! The villain had forgotten his fall. He started quickly forward and gazed upon his rival's smiling face. Then a painful silence followed, as there always does when a break mars the play. The leading man whispered in an undertone:

"Fall, man! Why don't you fall?" But the villain had no ear for hearing; he had expected to see the blood-stained corpse of his hated rival stretched before him—and now he stood there still alive and breathing.

With a loud oath which could be heard in every part of the house, the defeated villain sprang by his rival, dashed through the little crowd of stage people who had gathered in the wings and plunged through an open window, falling with a sickening sound upon the pavement below.

Of course this was all a deep mystery to every one but myself. The curtain dropped and surrounded by my companions I told the whole story.

I could see the leading lady clasp the young fellow's arm tightly when I told how I had balked the villain—now a broken, senseless mass of flesh and bones. I stayed with the company long enough to see the young people happily wedded. This ring, a pure diamond of the first water, was presented to me by the bridegroom for my taking, for the once and only time in all my life, the leading part in a tragedy.—Exchange.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. ROCK COUNTY'S TAXES.

Rock county has had the heavy and of the log as far as taxation is concerned. The annual report of the secretary of state gives significant comparisons between Rock and Milwaukee counties.

Milwaukee county put pressure on the state board of equalization wherever anything was to be gained.

Rock county supervisors did not.

Here is the result:

Milwaukee county's valuation was fixed by local assessors at $162,137,842. The state board was persuaded to reduce this to $133,419,142.

Rock county's valuation was fixed by local assessors at $20,167,953. The state board raised it to $21,552,069.

Some of the details by which this result was reached will be of interest.

Local assessors found $518,559 worth of wagons, carriages and sleighs in Milwaukee county. The state board reduced the figure to $502,565.

Rock county assessors reported $134,440 worth of wagons, carriages and sleighs, but the state board raised their figures to $155,000.

In Milwaukee county the assessors reported gold and silver watches worth $84,481. The state board cut that figure to $47,805. In Rock county watches were listed at $23,351, a ridiculously high figure as compared to Milwaukee. The state board was not satisfied with even this, however, and raised the valuation to $30,030.

On pianos, organs and melodeons Milwaukee county was cut from $707,319 to $510,900, while Rock county was raised from $61,392 to $101,790. As a matter of fact the musical instruments owned in Milwaukee are believed to exceed in value those of all the rest of the state put together.

By these changes and others equally arbitrary, however, the valuation of Milwaukee county property was reduced $28,718,700 and the valuation of Rock county property was raised $1,385,116. The creation of the state tax commission should afford Rock county some relief, as the injustice of the present equalization must be apparent to any one who looks into the matter.

A FREE TRADE RESULT.

Dispatches from Philadelphia announce that the Grand Central Railroad of England has placed an order for twenty locomotives with the Baldwin Works of that city. They are to be freight engines, of the same character and design as those now under construction at Baldwin's for the Midland Railway of England. Another English railway, the Great Northern, recently ordered a number of engines from the Baldwin works.

The fact that free trade England buys American locomotives is significant for it shows conclusively that the free trade theory means a loss to the workingman. At a time when Americans are buying abroad only such goods as are not manufactured at home. If England was enjoying the commercial regulation that the United States imposes, English locomotives, built by English workmen.

The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin denies that Col. Funston is red-headed, but ventures the prediction that he will become so when he learns that three-fourths of the newspapers are saying that he is.

It is but natural that democracy should mark Bryan and Altgeld for defeat, for the people registered their wishes in the cases of both of the gentlemen some time ago.

Toledo, Ohio, will buy the street railway now operated in that city, and the experiment of running it under municipal management will be watched with interest.

When Lawton and Funston are through with the Filipinos the latter will have better opinion of both American law and American fun.

London newspapers have discontinued their "Sunday issues," as the people did not want a paper published on the holy Sabbath.

A Necklace of Human Eyes.

Mrs. William E. Curtis, the wife of a Chicago journalist, possesses an extraordinary necklace, and it was exhibited at the Chicago World's Fair. The necklace is composed of three rows of human eyes in a perfect state of preservation, polished and mounted in gold. The eyes were procured from Peru, where the dead are buried in a sitting posture, and the hot, dry air acts more effectively than any embalming fluid in preserving them. A mummy can there be obtained for about five dollars, and the eyes alone are much cheaper. Polished and mounted, as they are in this necklace, they make a very striking ornament. Mrs. Curtis wore the necklace once only, and it was much admired until her friends were informed that they were petrified human eyes and not gems that were set in it, when the admiration turned to repulsion.

Pardonable Confusion.

"And this is the end!" cried the girl with the low, broad forehead, from which the dark tresses rippled, etc., and who was interesting rather than beautiful, etc., etc., wringing her hands. "Bless you, no," replied the inevitable man in the frock coat and gray trousers, "this is the first chapter." Yet the confusion into which she had fallen was altogether pardonable. The shrewd reader will at once recognize her as the invariable character in the old romantic fiction where one's troubles ceased immediately one married; and naturally she felt a bit strange now to be translated into the realistic novel, where one's difficulties do not fairly begin until one is wedded.—Detroit Journal.

Her Form in Gold.

A golden model of Miss Maud Adams, a very successful young actress, may be one of the attractions at the Paris exposition. The statue will be life-size, and will consist of gold bullion to the value of $346,000. The venture has been undertaken by a number of gold-mine owners living in Salt Lake City, Utah, the birthplace of Miss Adams. The enterprise has aroused much enthusiasm in the native town of this gifted woman, who has made "The Little Minister" one of the dramatic successes of the period. A life-size silver statue, representing Miss Ada Rehan, was one of the most popular exhibits in the mines and mining building at the Chicago Columbian exposition.

Remarkable Feat of Penmanship.

To write a long chapter of Genesis on a post card, in addition to selections from Shakespeare and Dickens, and the whole of "Home, Sweet Home," is a feat of penmanship of which any one might be proud. This was some time ago accomplished by a bank clerk, with a fine steel pen and with no aid from magnifying glasses. In all, there were more than 10,000 words, while so beautifully was the work done that many people have been able to read the writing with the naked eye.

Flash of Inspiration.

A young Frenchman who had been in this country but a few months, chanced one day to step unexpectedly upon a parlor match of an unusually explosive character, the result being a loud explosion like the crack of a pistol. "Ah!" he exclaimed, with a knowing smile and a shrug of his shoulders, after he had recovered from the shock of surprise, "zat ees what you call ze whole shooting match—ees eet not so?"

Some visitors were being shown through Kew Lunatic asylum, Victoria, a few days ago, and, coming opposite the clock in the corridor, one of them, looking quickly at his watch, said: "Is that clock right?" "No, you idiot," said a patient standing by; "it wouldn't be in here if it were right."

6,000 Soldiers Have Died.

According to the unofficial records, upward of 6,000 soldiers have died since the beginning of the war with Spain. By "unofficial" is meant that the mortality records are not yet made up. Clerks in the adjutant-general's office keep track of all those reported dead from various causes. These come from commanding officers and hospitals. The official vital statistics show 3,000 dead. There are various reasons for this discrepancy. There is a great deal of confusion on account of inexperienced officers, and the reports are naturally slow in running their course through the various department channels.

Aluminum for Small Coins.

Experiments have been carried on at the United States mint in Philadelphia with a view of ascertaining the fitness of aluminum for minor coins. Some 10,000 blanks of the size of the nickel 5-cent piece have been delivered at the mint for this purpose. Congress some time ago appointed a commission of experts to investigate and report upon this subject, and the experiments above referred to are being carried on under the direction of its members.

UNCIVILIZED METHODS.

If a thing has to be done, the barbarian does it regardless how. He doesn't stop to think. He doesn't wonder around the desert, pulling his curls in order to think of a way to pull his lady's teeth without pain to her. It's thinking—good solid thought—and after that, practical experience, that has enabled us to extract teeth painlessly. We study the methods of the world. With our own improvements, we combine those of the world. We do the best work reasonably, because reasonable prices are enough to pay for the best work. If they were not, we should charge more.

CUBAN SOLDIERS DISPERSE.

Two Hundred Refuse the $75 Each and Dispose of Their Weapons.

Havana, May 26.—Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, military governor of the Havana-Del Rio department, telegraphed Gov. Gen. Brooke at Elvedado that 200 Cubans of the command of Gen. Rodriguez, near Marianao, dispersed, after resolving not to take the $75 per man. Some of them sold their arms and others took them to their homes.

Telegrams from different points say that the Cuban army in the western provinces will adopt the idea of the troops in the orient, declining to give up arms or to accept American money. According to these reports, the government employees will contribute a percentage of their salaries in order to give the soldiers an amount equal to that offered by the United States.

New Head for Yale University.

New Haven, Conn., May 26.—The Yale corporation held its regular May meeting Thursday and elected Prof. Arthur Twining Hadley, M. A., president of Yale university to succeed Timothy Dwight, resigned. There was almost a full membership of the corporation present, and it is understood that the vote was practically unanimous. For some years Prof. Hadley has had charge of the training of Yale's debaters in addition to his duties as professor of economics. In the latter capacity he has won a distinguished reputation, which has been enhanced by his scholarly work in his chosen department of science.

McKinley to Go to Minnesota.

Washington, May 26.—President McKinley has positively decided to go as far west this summer as St. Paul and Minneapolis, but whether he will continue his journey to the Yellowstone park and the coast depends upon circumstances. The date of his visit to Minnesota is not yet decided upon. He intends to be there at the time the Thirteenth Minnesota, the South Dakota and other regiments arrive on their return from the Philippines, when a great reception will be accorded them.

The president's tour to New England will be made as quietly as possible.

Dr. Robinson Chosen Moderator.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 26.—The Rev. W. J. Robinson, D. D., of Allegheny, Pa., was unanimously elected moderator of the general assembly of the United Presbyterian church at Thursday's session. There were only two candidates for the honor—Dr. Robinson and the Rev. W. C. Williamson of Keokuk, Iowa. Dr. W. A. Reid of Pittsburgh, who has held the office of principal clerk since 1875, was unanimously re-elected, and Dr. A. G. Wallace of Pittsburgh had no opposition for the place of record clerk.

Heeds Plea of Jamaica.

Kingston, Jamaica, May 26.—Jamaica's prayer to the British government to be allowed to negotiate a reciprocity treaty with America, in consequence of the failure of the colonial office to do so, has resulted in Joseph Chamberlain cabling instructions to send two representative Jamaicans with Sir Cavendish Boyle, acting governor of British Guiana, to Washington to endeavor to arrange a treaty on similar lines.

SILVER IS SET ASIDE.

Democratic Leaders at St. Louis Ignore the Money Issue.

St. Louis, Mo., May 26.—Silver was relegated to the background by the speakers at the democratic banquet in the Coliseum Thursday night. The party leaders devoted their time to the discussion of the trusts, all apparently considering it the foremost issue before the people. W. J. Bryan spoke at length, denouncing monopolies, and was hailed by many as the presidential nominee for 1900.

The fight made by the Chicago city hall democrats against P. J. Devlin, editor of the Bulletin, assumed such proportions that it seemed the one issue before the national committee. The result was a practical defeat for the Harrison men, although a committee of three was named to visit Chicago and investigate the charges made. Ex-Gov. Altgeld is satisfied with the make-up of the committee.

An official meeting of the national committee will be held in Chicago July 20. St. Louis sought the honor, but was defeated by one vote.

Contrary to expectations, there was a majority of the national committee present at the conferences, and the morning and afternoon meetings were to all intent and purpose business sessions. Most of the time was occupied in discussing how money can be raised for the next campaign. Ex-Gov. Stone asked the several states to pledge amounts in proportion to their population and wealth. The pledges were made, but no amounts were specified by the committeemen.

Curiously enough, there has been very little talk about expansion. That is a subject which the visitors regard as one that can be discussed more intelligently later on.

The anti-trust dinner at the Coliseum at night was a success from a spectacular as well as a political standpoint. Not fewer than 10,000 men and women, 8,000 of whom were spectators and the remaining 2,000 participants in the monster feast, crowded into the big auditorium.

Twenty-one states and one territory were represented at the conference.

AVOID HERESY CASE.

Trint of Dr. McGiffert Unlikely—St. Louis Gets Next Meeting.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 26.—Dr. A. C. McGiffert, the author of the "History of Christianity in the Apostolic Age," is not likely to be tried for heresy by the Presbyterian church. His book was condemned by the assembly Thursday and the New York presbytery was instructed to dispose of his case according to its best judgment. The New York presbytery does not favor heresy trials.

It is likely the business of the convention will be over by Saturday. Next year St. Louis will entertain the assembly. This was decided when the report of the committee was unanimously adopted. The assembly will meet in Dr. Sneed's church, at Washington and Compton avenues.

The committee on temperance submitted its report Thursday, and resolutions were adopted against the army canteen and against the sending of alcoholic liquors into our newly acquired territory by American brewers and distillers.

The publication of the Assembly Herald is to be continued, its publication being placed in the hands of a committee of three, one to represent the board of foreign missions, one the board of home missions and one the other six boards. The subscription price is reduced to 25 cents.

Divorce Question Considered.

New York, May 26.—An emphatic protest against indiscriminate divorce is now being prepared in the Protestant Episcopal church. Its standing committee on marriage and divorce, of which the Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix is chairman, met Thursday in Trinity church, and in October the results of its determinations will be laid before the general convention. It is said that the question of the remarriage of an innocent party in divorce is to be taken up again at the October convention and the canons amended to prohibit either party to a divorce from marriage while the other lives.

Law Holds Beyond the State.

Madison, Wis., May 26.—Atty.-Gen. Hicks has given an opinion on the anti-pass law, at the request of State Railway Commissioner Rice, in which he holds that no state officer can accept free transportation from any railroad outside the state. The opinion takes the ground that the criminal jurisdiction of the state reaches outside the state and can punish any officer who rides free on a railroad outside the state.

Women Plead for Peace.

The Hague, May 26.—Mme. Selenka, the famous peace advocate and promoter of the woman's peace crusade, Thursday presented to M. de Staal, president of the conference and head of the Russian delegation, an illustrated album containing the text of resolutions in favor of peace adopted by meetings representing several million women.

President Aids Dewey Fund.

Washington, May 26.—Acting Secretary Cortelyou Thursday called upon Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Vanderbilt, chairman of the Dewey home fund, and placed in his hands a check for $100, constituting Mr. McKinley's contribution.

Whole Family Is Killed.

Joplin, Mo., May 26.—The discovery of the mysterious murder of a woman and three children and the supposed suicide of the husband and father was made Thursday. The family have occupied a tent in the northeast part of the town for some time. An infant child was found outside the tent with its head severed from its body; a girl of 7, a boy of 9, and their mother were found inside with their heads crushed in by a hammer. The husband was found dead with a revolver in his hand and a bullet hole in his head.

Will Organize for Bryan.

New York, May 26.—Franklyn Quinby, who has just received from Chairman James K. Jones an appointment as the New York county representative of the democratic national ways and means committee, announced to-day that he would at once proceed with the task of organizing Bryan democrats here for the campaign of 1900. If John C. Sheehaun will accept the leadership of the New Yorkers, Mr. Quinby says it may be offered him.

Texans to Shut Out Trusts.

Austin, Texas, May 26.—Gov. Sayers Thursday signed the anti-trust bill passed by the present session of the legislature. The law does not become operative until Jan. 31, 1901. This law has been carefully framed and Gov. Sayers will likely ask the proposed anti-trust convention to adopt this bill and have it enacted into a law by all the southern states.

Not Yet Ready to Adjourn.

Lansing, Mich., May 26.—The house voted down all resolutions fixing a day for final adjournment, the determination of the majority being not to take any definite action on this subject until the railroad and other taxation bills are passed. Notwithstanding this action the senate passed another resolution setting June 17 for final adjournment.

Gov. Howard Is Again Elected.

Hartford, Conn., May 26.—The business meeting of the Congregational Home Missionary society was held Thursday. Major-Gen. O. O. Howard was re-elected president. The vice presidents of the previous year were re-elected. The Rev. William H. Holman of Southport, Conn., was elected recording secretary and George S. Edgell auditor.

"Blessed Hour of Our Dinners."

Said the poet, and the meal is really enjoyable when eaten at the dining rooms of The Mrs. Clark Co., 151-153 Wabash avenue, Chicago, or at the restaurant on the 7th floor of the Association building in La Salle street, which is also run by this company. The cuisine and service are unexcelled.

Admiral Dewey's Health Improving.

Hongkong, May 26.—Admiral Dewey shows great improvement already. He is losing the air of languor he wore when he landed. It was rest that he needed—rest and a cooler air. He is getting both.

At Bendera, Kan., the pupils are mad at the teacher and refuse to attend school. He opens the schoolhouse every morning and rings the bell. No pupils show up, and he devotes the day to his own amusement. The school board has offered him half pay to quit, but he will not do it.

The Paris Still Sticks Fast.

London, May 26.—The hope of floating the steamer Paris from the rocks at Lowland point, Cornwall, where she stranded last Sunday morning, was again disappointed Thursday. The vessel was lightened as much as possible, and then, when the tide was at the top of the flood, five tugs pulled at her, but they failed to move her.

Windstorm at Hastings, Neb.

Hastings, Neb., May 26.—About 7 o'clock Thursday night a heavy wind storm struck this city and did much damage. So far as known no one was injured. Rumors that the storm played havoc in the country are coming in, but nothing definite is known.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saved Mrs. Hayes From an Operation.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 64,283]

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Words cannot express my thanks to you for your kind advice to me in regard to my health. I had been running down in health for about seven years. I had doctored with good doctors and taken a great many patent medicines. My trouble began when my first child was born. I had a very hard time and after its birth would have severe flooding spells. After my second child I had very good health until last winter when I again became pregnant and suffered very much and miscarried. I came very near dying, and the doctor said I must have an operation, which frightened me very much, and concluded to write to you for your advice, and take your medicine. Was troubled with the whites, great pain in back and hips, sometimes when lying down or sitting was unable to get up. Would have such pain in groins could hardly walk. I can say I have never seen anything so wonderful as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sassafras Wash. Your remedies have done wonders for me. Hoping that many of my suffering sisters may be led to take your medicine from reading this letter, I remain, sincerely yours, MRS. MARY HAYES, HARTFORD, CONN., KY."

Letters like the foregoing should convince everyone that Mrs. Pinkham's advice is certain help.

THE Y. M. C. A. CONFERENCE

Thirty-Third Biennial Gathering
at Grand Rapids, Mich.

SUMMARY OF WORK DONE.

Report Shows That the Association Has Made Little Apparent Progress During the Past Two Years—Money Needed for Foreign Work.

Grand Rapids, Mich., May 26.—The city is full of Y. M. C. A. people here to attend the international convention, which opened Thursday.

Little apparent progress of the association had been made as a whole during the past two years. In some items the figures are smaller than those of two years ago, but not in any case very much smaller.

The report says: "The most signal feature of progress and the most remarkable evidence of the vital force of the association movement has been the work accomplished during 1898 in the army and navy. This work under the name of the army and navy Christian commission of the international committee, extended a helpful influence to over 250,000 soldiers and sailors, being a larger number of young men outside of the membership of the association than the aggregate membership, active and associate, of the whole brotherhood.

"The receipts for the year were $234,- 504, and the expenditures $134,160, the balance being $284,777; publication account, receipts, $26,852, expenditures, $25,825, balance, $82,707; foreign field receipts, $51,840, expenditures, $51,054, balance $214,84. Of the $27,000 required for work in foreign lands in 1899 $10,500 had been received on April 30 and the balance could be confidently relied upon. Of the $90,000 required for the home work ($22,000 needed for the army and navy work), the committee had pledges of $50,000, leaving $40,000 to be raised, and the co-operation of the association and the friends of the work was most urgently called for. Unless the way can be opened it will be necessary to abridge the work."

At the evening session the number of delegates present was 700, and the Auditorium, the largest hall in the city, was crowded to the doors by enthusiastic spectators. The program was devoted mainly to the work of the associations in the army and navy during the last year, with Rear-Admiral John Philip presiding. Admiral Philip read a letter from President McKinley approving the work in the army and navy.

I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have used all kinds of medicine for it. At last I found one remedy that has been a success as a cure, and that is Chamberedy.—P. E. GRISHAM, Gaars Mills, La.

What the Baptists Are Doing.
San Francisco, Cal., May 26.—The American Baptists' Publication society opened the first session of its seventy-fifth anniversary Thursday afternoon.
The report of the board was read by
A. J. Rowland, D. D. The total issues since the organization of the society are 787,339,534 copies of books, periodicals, pamphlets and tracts. The net assets of the society are $846,169.48.
The receipts in the publishing department for the first fifty years of the society's history were $3,062,038.85. For the last twenty years they have been $11,291,351.69.

The American Baptist society elected
A. H. Strong, D. D., LL. D., New York, president for the year 1899.

Delay for Meat Bill.
Berlin, May 26.—An evidently inspired article in several Berlin journals concedes the truth of the statement captioned that the meat inspection bill will not be advanced at the summer session of the reichstag, as the government has refused to consider the commission bill and the commission remains firm regarding meat importations.

gates to the national convention to be

Not Seeking Gear's Place.
Washington, May 26.—Secretary Wilson, denied a report that he would be a candidate to succeed J. H. Gear as United States senator from Iowa.
"There is not a word of truth in the report," the secretary said. "I am not a candidate for the senate and I am not going to be. I appreciate the responsibilities and the honors attaching to a seat in the senate, but I have no taste for the character of the work expected of a senator and my ambition does not run in that line. Indeed, my head is so full of agricultural problems that I have not had time to think of anything else."

Maple City Soft-Washing Soap works perfectly in hard water. It bleaches white clothes and sets fast colors.

Chicago Live Stock Report.

Chicago, May 25.—Nearly 3,000 more cattle than came one week ago to-day went very readily to-day at the best prices of the week. Under a heavy run of hogs there was a big 10c decline from best prices the day before, the average cost of many droves standing nearly that much below the cost of such bought early the day before.
Values for sheep and lambs were again on down grade, many lots selling 15c below prices paid Wednesday, or 20c 35c below the high range quoted at the start this week. To-day's receipts were estimated at 11,500 cattle, 45,000 hogs and 14,000 sheep.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough.
My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Bergettstown, Pa. For sale by People's Drug Co.

of the Daily Telegraph at The Hague says:

"Serious differences of opinion have been manifested between the United cussing the seizure of private property at sea. The Americans insist upon the discussion, agreeing to abide by the voice of the majority in the decision, out of court. It is said that in order to prevent a misunderstanding the Ameri-

Road Wagons, Buggies and Surreys...

In the city. Not a stock that is shipped in from outside factories or for the consumer to pay a middle man's profit on, but a line of vehicles that are built right here at home, thoroughly reliable, fully warranted, and sold to the consumer direct from our factory.

Try us and you will be convinced that a good vehicle that we know all about and can tell you all about is the cheapest for you to buy. Come and see the work as it is built from the ground up and see for yourselves that it is strictly high grade work.

The Best is Always The Cheapest.

This holds good in a Furnace as much as in anything else. A poor, cheap Furnace is the bane to any man's life. He pays almost as much for a half good heater as he would for a

Mueller Double Radiator,

all cast Furnace, and in a few years different parts or the whole apparatus must be replaced.

Mueller's Cast Furnaces

last a life time, are more economical in fuel, and will absolutely not escape gas. No bolts are used throughout the Furnace. Fire pots are constructed in two heavy parts, allowing them to expand and contract at the very point where required.

Mueller Furnaces have many superior points over others—their being of cast iron adds weight and also extra heat. We have one set up on our floor so that you can see all about it.

A DOG-REPORTER.

Has the Run of All the Departments at Washington.

Bob, a fox-terrier that belongs to the chief of one of the Washington newspaper bureaus, is generally known along Newspaper Row as "the dog reporter." The correspondent of the Detroit News-Tribune tells why. There are some sanctuaries that the ordinary reporter does not dare to enter, unless specially invited; not so with Bob. His nerve is supreme. He starts out each morning with great regularity to make the rounds of the Treasury Department, White House, and War, State and Navy building, usually accompanying one of the reporters of the bureau. If they are behind time he goes on his own hook. He is known in all the departments, and when he comes alone officials discreetly conceal all letters or other documents that may have news in them because Bob will never leave an office without some tangible proof that he has called. A few weeks ago he was discovered by Secretary Gage calmly walking out of his office with a bundle of letters presented by a Western Congressman in behalf of a constituent who wanted a position. Bob was greatly aggrieved when the messenger forbore to relieve him of his "scoop." Bob also frequently pays his respects to the President. Unlike most callers, Bob always sees the chief magistrate when the spirit moves him so to do, and incidentally, in his demonstrations of delight over a Dewey victory or some other little achievement, he paws the creases all out of the presidential trousers. Bob, it is said, was the only outsider present when the President instructed the Peace Commission. Reporters, correspondents and journalists by the score were about the White House that day. Bob was also there, and in spite of the guards he got into the cabinet room, and there remained while the President discussed the weighty matters of state with his commissioners. Bob made friends with the commissioners at once, and it was only by diplomacy that he was separated from them. But for the persistency of a reporter, he might have been added to the commission's permanent staff, as Senator Frye took such a fancy to the dog that he expressed a desire to take him to Paris as a mascot.

Notable Ascensions.

Mr. Janssen, the French astronomer, is arranging for balloon ascents from three stations—one in Europe, another in America and a third in Siberia—to observe the November shooting stars next year. The balloons are to measure 50,000 to 60,000 cubic feet and carry three men, one aeronaut and two observers, with electric lamps, chronometers and star maps. They are to go up 10,000 feet. Free balloons are also to be sent up to test the high atmosphere.
